4. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD AND NC

4.1 The Board and NC shall be directly responsible for conducting assessments on the fitness and propriety of directors and making decisions on their appointments.

4.2 Based on the high-level and baseline considerations outlined in Clause 3 above, the Board and NC may discuss and determine prescriptions and specifications based on its specific circumstances, needs and requirements, such as specification on the minimum years of experience needed that a candidate must have at a senior level as a director to be considered for an appointment to the Board. These considerations should be periodically assessed and reviewed by the Board and NC to ensure their relevance and alignment with the organization needs and structure.

5. ASSESSMENT OF FITNESS AND PROPRIETY OF DIRECTORS

5.1 The fit and proper assessments on each director within the scope of this Policy shall be conducted by the Company both prior to initial appointments and at regular intervals of at least annually or whenever the Company becomes aware of information that may materially compromise a director's fitness and propriety.

5.2 The Company will consider the factors set out in Clause 3 above in assessing a director's fitness and propriety. The factors shall be assessed individually, as well as collectively, taking into account their relative importance. Failure to meet one factor on its own does not necessarily mean failure to meet the fit and proper criteria. The Company will consider the specific circumstances surrounding a director's failure to meet specific factors, such as the lapse of time since the occurrence of events, other contributing factors and the significance of the event from the perspective of potential risks posed to the Company.

5.3 The Company should exercise the assessment objectively in the best interests of the Company and the sound conduct of the Company's business. In conducting the assessment, the Company should consider whether there have been material changes in the nature or scope of the responsibilities assumed by a director in which higher standards of competence or judgement are required in order to properly perform the duties associated with the said position.

6. NON-DISCLOSURE OF SENSITIVE AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Whilst the Company should disclose the customised considerations and expectations in this Policy, the Company will not disclose any personal sensitive and confidential information.

7. REVIEW

This Policy shall be reviewed periodically by the Board and be revised at any time as it may deem necessary in accordance with the needs of the Company, the Bursa requirements and/or any other applicable laws enforced at the time being.

Adopted by the Board: 23 June 2022
